AUTO PARTS SHOP IS BEING MANAGED BY HARRY DIGESTI

Under the management of Harry Digesti, Osburn's Automotive Parts opened last week in Osburn's Garage building on West Main Street.

The new store replaced the De-Mai Auto Supply, which Joseph DeMai has moved to Yerington, Nevada.

Clarence Osburn, owner of the building, has completely revamped the setup throughout, putting his Buick display room in the east section of the structure, occupied in part by the supply department. The shop has been moved into the portion formerly used as a show room, providing more storage space in the rear of the garage.

Digesti is stocking parts and accessories for all makes of vehicles and is offering a complete automotive service for garages and individuals throughout the district. A permanent inventory is kept so that every part needed will be kept in stock. Aside from parts and accessories, tools, batteries and other items for the car and mechanics are available.

Digesti, who formerly operated Harry's Texaco station near the garage, is turning that part of the business over to Al Wakefield, who will be in charge of the station in the future.

Digesti is well known and well liked throughout this district and his many friends will wish him success in his new venture.

Waters Chosen Local Deputy Replacing Fair

It was learned this week that Roy F. Waters, well known Truckee man and Railway Express agent, has been named by Sheriff Wayne Brown to succeed Wesley Fair as deputy sheriff in Truckee.

Fair is leaving the post after a year and a half to take a position with the Anconda Copper Company at Yerington and to operate his Truckee Chain Saw Company here.

Waters has long been associated in law enforcement here. He was a deputy under Constable N. F. Dolley and for some time was a non-salaried deputy sheriff and a member of the Sheriff's Ski Posse. He is a veteran of World War II, having served in the European Theater during the war, and saw action in North Africa, Italy, France and Germany.

Since his return from the service, Waters has been Truckee agent for the Railway Express and expects to continue in this capacity. His duties as deputy sheriff consist of night patrol duty in Truckee. He will start his police work today and until familiar with the details, will be assisted by Constable N. F. Dolley.

Truckee Team Looks Good In Sunday's Game

Three Out of Four P-N Tilts
Go to Extra Frames
Last Sunday

There was considerable joy in baseball circles in this area this week after the fine showing made by the Truckee American Legion sponsored team against the Placer Japanese-American team at Auburn Sunday.

The locals lost a thrilling 10-inning game 8 to 7 but in so doing displayed an improved form, vastly different from the first game of the Placer - Nevada loop series when they were hit by a 30 to 6 score against Auburn.

Rightlander Lynn Roath pitched the full ten innings for the Mountaineers, holding the opponents to 9 hits while his team mates piled up 13 safeties off Ikaeda and Takawama of the JACL.

The locals led until the last of the ninth, when, with two out, the tying run stole home from third.

Manager John Rau takes the team to Placerville next Sunday and, with a possible switch here and there, expects to put Truckee into the win column.

Three of the four games in the P-N league last Sunday required extra innings, as the teams exerted themselves to start the season off right.

First sacker Al Wakefield led his team mates hitting, getting three for five. Catcher Mike Korich got two doubles in five times up and Les Davidson rapped two for five. All the boys are finding their stride and Rau declares they will be a real threat in future contests.

The Bungalow has been completely remodeled and redecorated for the new business.

We believe that too little public attention is being focused on the Boy Scout program in this area. Few people realize the efforts expended by the leaders in providing this valuable program for the boys of the district, many of whom are participating. The Boy Scout movement is one of the outstanding, proven youth development programs existing and its lasting effect upon the young men who take part can never be questioned or over emphasized. This weekend a group of Truckee Boy Scouts will travel to Auburn for the annual Camporee, to take part in a two-day gathering with scores of other youths from various parts of the district, providing an association which we believe vital in forming a broadening influence. We salute the Boy Scouts and their leaders as designers of better citizens.

With the trout fishing season opening in some parts of the district Saturday, we are reminded of the need for a constructive campaign to provide better fishing. We sincerely hope that the six-point program proposed by the Truckee Outdoor Sportsmen will find favor and result in united action by various organizations to bring them into reality. Planting of catchable trout, installation of more beaver and establishment of a permanent biologist in the district are points worthy of public support and we hope the program will not be allowed to die.

NICKLE SIERRA SUN IS THING OF PAST AS COSTS INCREASE

To help offset the increasing costs of production, the newsstand price of the Sierra Sun today goes from five to ten cents per copy and the annual subscription rate is being boosted from $2.50 to $3.

This step was taken only after it became apparent that it would not be possible to continue at the old rate.

The Sierra Sun is among the last papers in the state to increase subscription rates, most of the others have advanced months and even years ago to keep pace with costs of newsprint, services and distribution.

Changes Made In Management Of Local Firm

Tonini Replacing Martin
At Tahoe Position
For Company

Frank W. Gaennie, district manager for the Sierra Pacific Power Company, this week announced important changes in the company's personnel in this area.

Daryl Gaennie, who has been district superintendent at Lovelock for the past few years and since his departure from Truckee, has accepted a position as vice president and general manager for the Missouri Service Company and is taking over his new duties May 20. The family will reside at Mound City, Mo.

Stanley Martin, Tahoe agent for the Sierra Pacific, has been transferred to Lovelock to succeed Gaennie as district superintendent and Robert B. Tonini, foreman at Truckee, will go to Tahoe City to replace Martin.

Frank Giovannoni, Truckee sub-foreman, will be elevated to foreman to take over Tonini's work at Truckee.

Young Gaennie, son of the local superintendent, a veteran of the war in the Pacific and well known here where he attended local schools, in being offered the management of the Missouri concern, has rightfully earned the congratulations of his many friends here.

PARKING PROJECT AWAITS TALKS ON LEASING OF LOT

Charles Osburn and Edwin Crandall were named by Reginald Smart, president of the Truckee Chamber of Commerce, to contact Mrs. Sam Costa relative to leasing a plot of land owned by her in the rear of the California Cafe as a public parking area.

The chamber at last Thursday's meeting heard a report by Osburn indicating a majority of business people along the main street favored the parking area to relieve congestion on the main thoroughfare. Most of the business people, Osburn said, signed an agreement to use the lot and enforce the ruling with their employees.

Mrs. Costa has agreed, according to proponents of the plan, to lease the area, which will accommodate nearly 100 cars, for $600 a year and will keep it free of snow during the winter.

Providing a suitable contract can be arranged, it was agreed at the meeting to give the idea a trial.

A score of members attended the meeting held at Brown's Cafe.

TWO CONVICTED AS DRUNK DRIVERS

Allen P. Buck, 70, Fresno, paid a $250 fine on a drunk driving charge when he appeared before Justice of the Peace F. W. Wilson this week. He was arrested by State Patrolmen Martin Sturcke and Carrol Maynard.

Willard G. Sanford, 34, Sparks, Nevada, also arrested on a drunk driving charge, was taken to the Nevada County hospital by Truckee ambulance for observation. He was fined $300 by Judge Wilson but did not have the money and so is held in custody pending outcome of his treatment.

Those on the camp trip Saturday and Sunday were, beside the leaders, Senior Patrol Leader Stanley Rasmussen, Donald Sites, Kenneth Osburn, Aaron Thomas, Frank Giovannoni, Donald Metter and James Harris.

Tahoe Shooters Star In National Meet In Nevada

KINGS BEACH—Billy Martin brought fame to himself and the Lake Tahoe Gun Club Saturday when he took a first place in the Golden West Grand American handicap shoot staged at Reno.

Competing with 445 other shooters from all over the country, Martin scored a tie with out-of-state trap shooters and then came back in the shoot-off to win. The four tied in the Preliminary Handicap from the 18-yard line with 96's. In the shootoff, Martin scored a straight 25.

He was awarded a valuable wrist watch and purse money totaling approximately $700.

Another local shooter, Ray Sorensen scored fifth in the 22-yard event and was topped only by four other outstanding gunmen.

Both Sorensen and Martin shot under the colors of the Lake Tahoe Gun Club and against some of the world's best competition, accomplished marks which will bring credit to their club and the district.

LOWELL THOMAS PACKS CAPITOL FOR SHOW, TALK

Capitol Hall could not accommodate the enthusiastic crowd which Monday night gathered to enjoy a lecture and colored moving pictures presented by Lowell Thomas.

The films entitled "The Ice Men" portrayed the research activities on the Alaskan ice field. Thomas and others representing the National Geographic Society of New York spent some time in the heart of the 75-square-mile ice pack, where a number of agencies—including the army—are conducting experiments.

Thomas, international traveler, author, lecturer and newscaster, was here Sunday through Tuesday and broadcast from the Southern Pacific depot where a temporary CBS studio was setup for his program.

Throughout the showing of the pictures Monday evening, Thomas lectured on the scenes and told the purposes of the expedition. No charge was made but a substantial sum was donated to the Red Cross. The chamber of commerce sponsored the program, which was volunteered by Thomas.

During his broadcasts from here, Thomas again gave this region invaluable publicity. He related stories of the record-breaking winter of 1951-52 and the rescue of the passengers on the Streamliner, stalled for several days in the snow bank west of Norden.

Thomas continued on to San Francisco following his visit here and will lecture there this week as well as making his twice-a-day broadcast of world news.

A reel of pictures taken by the Southern Pacific after the January storm were shown following the Thomas pictures Monday.

Thomas voiced his appreciation for the reception given him in this area and promised to return when possible.

Group Held For Investigation As Illegal Entrants

Mexican Money in Pockets
Cast Doubt Over Plea
Of Innocence

United States immigration officials were here Monday to investigate eight Mexican citizens, charged with illegal entry, who were apprehended at the quarantine station here Sunday night.

The eight were accompanied by a 14 year old boy and the car was driven by Elaboreo Rodriguez, a native of California, residing at Modesto. Rodriguez told officers he picked the eight men and the boy up in Reno and was simply giving them a ride to Modesto.

Suspicion was aroused at Reno when the car stopped at a service station. The service station attendant had a glimpse of the boy's feet and lower legs in the trunk of the car when the lid was lifted. Believing something was wrong, he notified the Reno sheriff's office and the California Highway Patrol here was asked to apprehend the car and make a check.

When the car stopped at the quarantine station, the boy was in the seat of the car and the driver protested that his companions were not known to him and he did not believe them to be "wet backs." Officers doubted his story and the immigration officials were notified.

The Mexicans were arrested by State Patrolmen Martin Sturcke, Carrol Maynard, William Gausche and Deputy Sheriff Frank Gallino.

All ten of the car's occupants were taken from Truckee by the border patrolmen, when it was revealed that the eight men and the boy still had Mexican money in their possession and apparently only recently reached the United States.

Officers suspected the group took the long way around to reach the central valleys without detection.

NORTH TAHOE

by THELMA BURROUGHS

Everyone in the community, of course, will be concerned about the welfare of our constable, Richard (Dick) Lavery, who is in a hospital at San Rafael following a traffic accident last Wednesday evening about 8:30 p.m. Lavery suffered a fractured skull and six broken ribs, was knocked completely out of his car and onto the pavement. Mrs. Lavery (Ruth) was not notified until about six o'clock the following morning. Leaving immediately, she found her husband still in an unconscious condition. Dick had been to San Quentin to question James Rudolph, otherwise known as the "Green Scarf Bandit," who is now serving a life term for kidnapping. Rudolph was active in the lake area last summer and allegedly admitted the $7,000 robbery which created such a stir around Cal-Vada, when a man won the money at gaming and was relieved of it soon afterward. He also is said to have admitted several motel robberies in the lake area. All of Dick's friends are wishing for him a complete and speedy recovery.

Tom and Hazel James were up last weekend looking over their now water surfaced "James Lake Shore Cabins." Didn't take them long to decide that a little while longer spent at their Sacramento residence will be perfectly in order.

Everette and Virginia Mason were also up viewing the eighteen inches or so of water around their lake front cabins. Mrs. Eva Mason, Everette's mother, was here too.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ketman also spent last Friday night at the lake. Said they'd be back around the tenth of May to stay.

If you think North Tahoeites should have been around the court have no civic consciousness, you house in Auburn last Friday to see that jam-packed room with representatives from the lake interested in rezoning in this area. Of 45 persons from this end of the lake, there appeared to be only one dissenting vote. On May 23 there will be another hearing on this issue before the planning commission. Then in June the third and last hearing will be before the Placer County board of supervisors.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Stevenson of Holliday Inn have returned for the season and are quite busy getting their place ready to open. Borue O'Brien is at home. Said he'd been here about two weeks when I talked with him last Saturday. Also saw Barbara O'Brien Larsen, who was up for the week with her parents, Dorothy and Borue.

May and Ira Blair are back for the season and building a new cabin for their court. The Blairs wintered at Stockton.

Billie Martin, sometimes called "Dead Eye Dick," took top honors at the Far Western Trap Shoot in Reno last Saturday. Others attending the shoot from the lake were Ray and Andy Sorensen, Johnny Rayburn, Dixie Reese, Joe King and Fred Baker. A number of Tahoeites also went over to watch the trick shooter, Herb Parsons, repeat his exhibition shooting and felt well repaid for their trip over.

Vincent Kientz is getting about nicely on his crutches and doing real well.

Harvey Martin and family arrived at their Lake Tahoe residence in time for the children to catch three-day measles.

Edd and Mary Starr, also Mr. and Mrs. Mark Pluth, visited last week with the Andy Sorensens. Mrs. Pluth is a sister of the hostess. While here, Edd and Mary sold their home at Tahoe Vista. The purchasers are Mr. and Mrs. Lee Madden of Tahoe City. Madden is employed at Tahoe Vista Garage while Mrs. Madden is employed with the unified school district.

Granny and Ike Miles are at home to stay now, after wintering in Sacramento.

Florence Miles was up from Oakland last week on business and reported that Mulford did not feel well enough to make the trip. In this neighborhood, we miss Florence, Mulford and David since they went to Oakland to live last fall.

The Lake Tahoe Chamber of Commerce will hold its first annual Trout Day Ball with dinner and dancing at Harvey Gross' Wagon Wheel, Stateline, Nevada. Awards will be made to fishermen on the basis of catches. Tickets will be available at fishing piers and at sporting goods houses in the area. No reservations will be taken for dinner. Those there first will be thus served. Remember the date, Saturday, May 10, starting at 7 p.m.

Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan at Sacramento said this week that articles of incorporation were on file for The Women's Club of North Tahoe, qualifying the group as a non-profit organization. The directors of record are Camilla Althof, Margaret Christenson and Marguerite Ashton, all of Kings Beach, reports Capitol News Service.

Tahoe Robbery Suspect Being Held in Jail

Leon J. Forest, 37, is in the El Dorado County jail at Placerville, charged with burglary of a resort store room at Lake Tahoe last winter.

William D. Meyers is named as signer of the complaint against Forest. He states that goods stolen, consisted of liquor in a storeroom adjacent to quarters which Meyers left open for convenience of road crews and others combating the winter storm conditions.

Vacation Trip—

Summit Scene

by FRAN COUILLARD

We are now in that period that operators both dread and welcome—a paradox in statement but nevertheless true. After a winter's business (and especially after the record breaking winter in snowfall we have just left behind us) the quiet period means a session of relaxation before the preparations begin for the summer trade. It also means a mute placed on the cash register keys. T'isn't time to start spring housecleaning as yet, for many windows are still sealed with banks of the winter's pack and where the tide of white stuff has receded pools of mud stand, a carpet between the outside and polished floors. Incidentally, this last week's spring snow fall took us over the hump for an all-time record breaker for snow fall in this unpredictable area.

A miscellaneous shower given for Marylou Conn at Donner Summit Lodge was celebrated by an afternoon tea with Prudence Crosby, Cinderella Field and Betty Horak all charming hostesses. After the tea, Marylou hid herself back to Seattle and her folks to make final preparations for her wedding, which will take place at Lake Tahoe on May 10. The benedict, Lee Perone, rushes to the mountain each weekend to take a look at his future bride. Bud Horak will act as "papa" at the wedding and hand Marylou over to Lee, whilst Betty Horak will pour at the reception to be held later. All mountain folk who plan to help Marylou and Lee celebrate look over their freshly unpacked spring wardrobes and contemplate what to wear.

From Sonoma comes word that little Pat Lambres has just presented proud husband, Jack, with a baby son. Jack's buttons pop as he awaits the return of his wife and heir.

Gloria Parrott returns to the mountains from the valley, where she resided until some of the snow receded, bringing new baby Patti and bigger baby Pamela home to enjoy the good mountain spring sun.

Spring hit the Brant Chaplin family when they wheeled out a new Jaguar convertible with brass trimmings. Proud of their new "child", they took turns driving the powerful British contraption around the neighborhood.

We mentioned Max and Nat Williamson's Chinese dinner last week, but that was before we had attended same. If Nat wants to go into the business, we'll furnish the pigtail. Such a dinner, with all the fixings. Chow mein, pork spareribs with pineapple, fried shrimps, rice, tea, the works! And how she squeezed 30 people in her small home at the Big Bend ranger station, kids and all, and served them nicely and amply, I'll never know. The party was a goodbye for Tony and Kay Rogina, who move to Camptonville, "changed by government order." We'll miss these two nice people and will have to look for a new secretary for the community club, which Kay had to resign in order to accompany her family.

Jean Moriano, after a wretched winter, goes back into her traction device for relief and already feels better.

SEPARATION MOVE IS BLOCKED AT F. W. S. A. MEETING

SQUAW VALLEY—A threatened breakup of the Far West Ski Association fizzled out during the annual convention of the FWSA here over the weekend. The organization embraces California and Nevada winter sports organizations.

The convention voted to reject a resolution by Roy Mikkelsen of the Auburn Ski Club that the FWSA approve a plan by the northern clubs to petition the National Ski Association for recognition as a new division.

Since southern dominance of the FWSA was an issue to the northern group, there is speculation that the separation movement may not be entirely dead.

Paul Smith of Modesto was elected president; Jean Kerr, San Francisco, secretary, and M. O. Koppler, Los Angeles, treasurer.

Raymond L. Fellows of Carnelian Bay, a member of the Lake Tahoe Ski Club, was named vice president to represent District No. 6 while Ed Tieslau of Reno is a new director.

pose of digging out. Jim Sherritt views a sagging end of his front porch as the snows melt. New lumber shows up at the Sherritt house which means that repairs are about to start. Bent trees, swaying close to the earth, testify to the weight they have carried this past winter. Care are now starting to emerge, tops crushed and tires flat. Even with a few soft, warm rains, the snow banks defy the spring and rear their bulks toward the skies whilst cabin owners (mostly weekenders) journey to the area each weekend and wonder what the melting snow will divulge — and when.

Promotional minded mountaineers met at Rancho Sierra, Emigrant Gap, last week with Gladys Rohl of the Auburn chamber of commerce. The purpose of the meeting was to keep the ball rolling on the forming of a mountain chamber. "Red" Vind of Norden works diligently on this project.

Last week's skiing business was perhaps the greatest the area has ever seen for the second weekend after Easter. Skiers on the slopes this midweek foretell another good weekend. Ski tow operators predict good snow conditions for skiing for weeks to come and scratch their heads in an effort to promote same.

Snow, Rain Boost Precip Figures at Tahoe City

TAHOE CITY—Adding more snow fell here April 25, to boost precipitation for the week to 1.19 inches and raise the lake level to 6227.11 as of Monday morning. All 17 gates remain open and here were 48 inches of snow still on the ground at 8 a.m. April 28, according to A. E. Frodenberg, official observer.

Daily high and low temperatures were April 21st: 52, 25; 22nd: 56, 25; 23rd: 54, 28; 24th: 55, 31; 25th: 45, 32; 26th: 47, 32; 27th: 56, 30; 28th: low 31.

MAY 23 NEXT DATE FOR HEARING ON REZONING AT LAKE

AUBURN— The second hearing on a proposal to reclassify zone six to provide more territory for commercial units and multiple dwellings is scheduled for 10 a.m. on May 23 at the Placer County court house in Auburn.

burn. The change is advocated by the North Tahoe Community Club.

A. E. Abbott, proponent of the plan, told the first hearing that "property valued at $1,500,000 is owned by people here today who favor this proposal."

T. L. Chamberlain, attorney for the proponents, presented the case for them after a request for postponement was made by H. O.

Comstock of Brockway, who said the proposal jeopardizes Kings Beach business as it exists today. He suggested a July hearing, for the convenience of interested summer residents. Chamberlain replied, saying it would be difficult for owners of businesses to close in July to attend a hearing.

Supporting Chamberlain after his presentation, based on the need for business territory expansion in the area, were Abbott, Joe King, Donly Grey, C. E. Mandeville, Andy Sorenson, Helen B. Anderson, Earl Grey, P. M. Burroughs, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Gold, A. J. Ketman, Harry Charrison and A. J. Julien.

A. B. Lewis stated he favors the proposal to reclassify but thinks the area to be reclassified should be larger.

Garrett Doty, secretary of the county planning commission, said letters are on file from summer residents of the area, now in various parts of the country, both for and against the proposal.

Following the May 23 hearing, a favorable action by the planning commission would necessitate another hearing, the latter before the board of supervisors. Franklin Tuttle, assistant district attorney, said it would probably be held within a month after May 23.

FRENCH CANADIANS ONE AND THREE IN SILVER BELT RUN

SUGAR BOWL— The annual Silver Belt giant slalom classic here on the weekend was won by Yvan Tasche, French Canadian ski teacher from Los Angeles. He was clocked over the 35-gate course down Mount Disney Sunday in 1:11.2. This was a full second swifter than Guttorm Berge, Norwegian Olympic skier now an exchange student at Whitman College in Washington.

The Norseman, racing fourth in a seeded order, for a while appeared a sure winner after Yankee Olympians Jack Reddish and Darrell Robinson of Salt Lake and Dick Buek of Soda Springs ran into difficulties on the fast course. The latter two were disqualified for missing gates and Robinson finished 20th after two tumbles.

Third place went to Yves La-treille, another French Canadian from southern California in 1:16. Next was Magnus Bucher, Denver University, 1:17.3 and Bob Potts, Squaw Valley, 1:20.

Mary Jane Griffith Marin of Sun Valley won the women's race in 1:21.1, followed by Charlotte Zumstein, Sun Valley, in 1:24.3. Elaine Holmstad, Sun Valley, was third in 1:34.2 and Brynhild Grasmoe, Stanford, was timed at 1:36.1.

Several hundred watched the events in warm spring sunshine. Numerous spectacular falls were seen and two injuries marred the otherwise perfect day. Pat Riley, Squaw Valley, suffered a wrist injury and Bob Clow, Los Angeles, sustained a broken leg.

Other finishers among the men, in order, were Curt Chase, Reno; Jim Baker, Lake Tahoe; Dave Taylor, Stanford; Jim Brehler, Lake Tahoe; Norman Palmer, Lake Tahoe; Chris Schwarzen-Yosemite; Gordon Butterfield,

WOULD OUTLAW FORKED HORN HUNTS IN REGION

SACRAMENTO —(C. N. S.)— Condition of California's mule deer herd is serious enough to warrant the state fish and game commission to use its emergency powers to declare a moratorium on the taking of antlerless and forked horn deer for the next two years. This statement was made by an assembly interim committee on fish and game, headed by Assemblyman Lester T. Davis of Portola. The committee, he said, has held meetings in northeastern California, including Fall River Mills and Quincy, on the deer situation.

The legislators recommended the following action for the fish and game commission:

1. There be no antlerless deer shoot in 1952 or 1953 in District 1 1/4 nor in the counties of Sierra and Plumas because of the serious depletion of the brood stock of the mule deer, due, primarily, to the most severe winter in 70 years.
2. That the taking of forked horn deer be banned for 1952 and 1953 in District 1 1/4 and in the

Nevada County Shares In Candidate Fees

SACRAMENTO —(C. N. S.)— Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan announced he had allocated $46,005 to counties of the state as an apportionment of filing fees of candidates for the June 3 primary election. Los Angeles was high county with $20,430.17 as its share. Nevada County rates a total of $71.24.

counties of Sierra and Placer for the same reasons.

The committee also directed several recommendations to Seth Jordan, director of the department of fish and game, which stress the need for a workable game and range management program.

Forest Industries to be Aided By Projected Lab at U. C.

BERKELEY— Preliminary plans for a Forest Products Laboratory of the University of California College of Agriculture were recently approved by the university board of regents. The building, to be located at the university's Engineering Field Station at Richmond will greatly speed the research in more efficient uses of California's forests and wider utilization of wood wastes.

The plans call for an L-shaped one-story building of heavy wood construction with about 18,000 square feet of working space. One wing will house laboratories for physical and chemical tests on wood and wood products. The other wing will house a large heavy equipment room for pulp and gluing machinery and other equipment for wood processing and testing on a pilot plant scale.

Completely equipped wood and metal shops are also among the plans. Three rooms with constant temperature and humidity controls will provide regulated drying of wood for testing.

At the apex of the "L" will be the main reception and exposition room, administration offices and conference facilities.

Nearby a small building will be constructed to house a sawmill. Here actual commercial - scale work can be carried on to test new developments in sawmill operation, management and wood preparation.

Working drawings must now be made from the preliminary plans. This may take several months. It is hoped that construction can begin the end of 1952, but no definite dates can be set at this time.

Forestry professors and university architects recently toured the Pacific Northwest to visit forest products laboratories at other institutions and companies. The university laboratory will rank with the finest in other western states.

Additional Snow Dough OK'd by Commission

SACRAMENTO —(C. N. S.)— The state highway commission has approved an additional $1,200,000 for snow removal purposes in the highway maintenance budget.

The commission took action when it was advised that snow removal work was two and a half times greater last season than in any normal year.

Excessive damage to highways,

the commission said, was caused by heavy snows and the additional money is needed to repair the mountain routes. The governor's budget appropriated $22,000,000 for maintenance work and snow removal on the roads subject to damage by snows.

GOV'T CONTROLS ARE ABHORENT, WARREN STATES

SACRAMENTO —(C. N. S.)— Inflation is the handmaiden of Communism and to succumb to ruinous inflation would be to permit Communism to achieve a victory over the nation without firing a shot.

This statement was made by Governor Earl Warren on a radio program recently, during which the governor gave his opinion on what economic controls are needed in the nation.

"The whole idea of artificial controls on the economy of the nation is abhorrent to me," the governor said, "as I know it is to most Americans."

"Our enterprise system works best when business and industry have full management of their own affairs."

"Our great mass production and mass distribution systems were developed under free competition—competition which encourages sound management and efficient operation, and therefore the lowest possible prices and the highest possible quality of product."

Fair wages, the governor said, can best be assured by free collective bargaining without government controls on wage levels.

"However," he declared, "in times of grave national emergency, controls may be urgently required to maintain economic balance and prevent run-away inflation."

"Even under these conditions, I would say that the less price fixing and wage fixing we have, and the greater reliance we place upon collective bargaining and competitive pricing, the better it will be for our country."

TIMBER OPERATORS TO TALK OVER INDUSTRY'S RULES

The Forest Practice Committee of the North Sierra Pine Forest District will hold public meetings at 7:30 p.m. each evening in Oroville, Quincy, Redding and Burney on May 6, 7, 8 and 9 respectively, on the revision of the Forest Practice Rules for this district based on five years experience with the present rules.

The North Sierra Pine Forest District is comprised of all the area in California east of the Sacramento and Shasta Rivers and north of the Bear River in Nevada County.

It is urged that all timberland owners and operators in this area attend these hearings as it will be their best chance to register approval or disapproval of the proposed revisions or to suggest additional changes. The revised rules will not be submitted to a vote of the timber owners as was provided for in the original Forest Practices Act, so it is important that the feelings of owners and operators are made known to the Forest Practice Committee at

Shortly after their marriage, Slim took over the skiing job at Manzanita Lodge in Lassen Park. They tell us they have a small son which they have added to the clan and are still happily living at Manzanita Lodge. Both of these mountain friends look wonderful and confess that they couldn't let another season go by without returning to the scene of their romance and the best skiing in the country. They are trying to make the rounds to renew old acquaintances and wish to be remembered to any of their mountain friends they might miss.

KINGS BEACH SCHOOL NEWS

Kindergarten and First Grade "Ronnie" Rondelli brought two of their kittens to visit us. All the children enjoyed the little animal guests very much.

We started our seeds. First we put in gravel, then peat moss, then dirt. We dug a little hole, put in the seeds, covered them and watered them. We will keep them in a sunny place. Some children planted flowers, some vegetables.

Grades Two and Three: Public Schools Week is being observed at our school April 29-May 2. For those who could not visit our class during the day, we held classes from 7:30 to 9:00 p.m. Tuesday, April 29. Our class put on a language arts demonstration during this time. We had a large attendance during the open house. After the demonstration, refreshments were served to everyone by the PTA of the Kings Beach School.

Jack McPherson brought a huge stone bowl to our class this week. This bowl was used by Indians many years ago to pound corn. It is on our exhibit table.

Frances Howard brought a lovely bouquet of pussywillow and daffodils. These flowers are the first flowers we have had in our room since last fall.

Mrs. Wing showed us a film that correlated with our social studies unit. The name of it was "Adobe Village."

Mrs. Joe Labernik, Billy's mother, visited our classroom on Thursday afternoon. We were happy to have her and hope she can visit again.

Grades 4, 5 and 6 The class saw a film, "Basketball is Fun." The boys are anxious to play basketball the correct way now.

Philip Mandeville and JoAnn Van Hooser are completing their map to show the products of Canada.

All the committees for social studies have been looking at film strips which they ordered from the county school office to help them with their work.

The class is studying the planets and solar system as a separate science lesson.

Paschen.

PLANNING BOARD TALKS SANITATION, O.K.'S NEW TRACT

NEVADA CITY—The Nevada County planning commission met in the court house Monday night and recommended that the board of supervisors adopt regulations designed to improve sanitary conditions on the county's lakes and streams and in rural subdivision areas.

The recommendation followed a brief discussion of a proposed county ordinance received from state housing authorities. District Attorney Vernon Stoll, a commission member, said the ordinance was a matter for the board rather than the commission to consider in detail.

Commission members Stoll, R. E. Deebie, J. F. O'Connor and Chairman John Fortier all declared that something would have to be done within a year or so concerning sanitation problems in growing resort and subdivision areas.

"If something isn't done soon it is going to retard the sale of home sites in the mountains," said O'Connor.

Stoll moved and Herb Hallett seconded the resolution. The commission adopted it unanimously, R. N. Little of Truckee joining the others in the affirmative vote.

The commission accepted a tentative map of a 46-lot proposed subdivision of the Donner Lake Development Company. Called the Emmons Tract, it is at the north end of Summit Creek near the west end of Donner Lake. J. N. Andregg, Auburn engineer and surveyor, presented the map for discussion.

O'Connor and Stoll asked several questions concerning sewage disposal plants for the tract. It was decided that the soil depth and consistency at the site would be suitable for septic tanks.

The commission voted to recommend reappointment for two of its members whose terms are about to expire, Little and Lou Hartman, the latter of Grass Valley. Hartman was not present at the meeting.

Local Men Seek Spots On Party Committees

Douglas Barrett and B. W. Reynolds are candidates on the June 3 primary ballot for election to the Nevada County Republican central committee. Both are incumbents and Barrett is currently chairman of the committee. There are two places in the fifth supervisory district.

Although no one filed for the ballot on the Democratic committee from this district, Joe Mattos has said that he will be a write-in candidate for one of the two Democratic committee seats from this district.
